CD.com Earns Over $277,000 and PrizeFight.com Scores 6-Figure Knockout to Join Year-To-Date Sales Leaders

Our Year-To-Date all-extension domain sales chart got two new members this week, with both of those cracking the 6-figure barrier. The 800-pound gorilla was CD.com, a domain that finally closed for $277,750 after being auctioned off by Moniker.com at the T.R.A.F.F.I.C. West Conference in Las Vegas in May. Buyer Rick Schwartz took advantage of financing from DomainCapital.com to add the blue chip two-letter .com to his collection.

CD.com comes on board at #12 with the other newcomer, PrizeFight.com cornering the #28 position after selling for $105,556 at Afternic.com. Here is the complete leader board with all of the top sales reported through the week ending July 9:

	Domain	Sold For	Where Sold	Date*
1.	Diamond.com	$7,500,000	Pvt Sale	5/19/06

Global Contenders (.biz, .info, .net & .org)

Our Year-to-Date Global Contenders leader board got four new members this week. Three of those were .nets that sold for five figures each. ExchangePlace.net led the way, going for $15,750 at Afternic.com to nip the $15,329 sale of Reset.net at Sedo.com. Both of those domains rank among the top 20 sales in the GC category this year.

.Org also earned a spot this week with Dan.org going for $7,056 at SnapNames.com. Here is how all of the Global Contenders stack up through July 9 (new entries are always highlighted in green):

Country Codes (ccTLDs)

The country codes have been red hot in recent weeks, but finally cooled down this time out with only one domain cracking the ccTLD YTD best sellers list. That was Trident.co.uk, a domain that comes on board at #62 after selling for £5,000 ($9,232) at Sedo.

It currently takes at least $7,000 to make this list. Here's a complete look at all of the ccTLD top sellers reported through July 9 (domains new to the chart this week are highlighted in green):
